

Online Resources for Members

Maximize Your Membership Value

Welcome to the Geoprofessional Business Association (GBA)!

In order to help you get the most out of your membership, we have put together this guide to GBA's online resources.

All of these can be found using the GBA website as a starting point.

Got questions about GBA and its resources?

E-mail info@geoprofessional.org.

First, make sure you can login to the website; this is your key to everything you can do online as a member of GBA!

- If we added you to our system, your username is your e-mail address, and your initial password is Password1, which you will change after you first login.
- If that doesn't work, click on Forgot Password? to see if we have you in our system and reset your password.
- If you're not in our database already, then click on the Sign up here link on that page, or the Register link in the home page login area.

Tell others in your firm to sign up! All employees of Member Firms can have their own login for the GBA website. Use the resources in Promote GBA in Your Firm to help!

Search for GBA Member Firms

This directory is visible to anyone looking to hire a geoprofessional firm. Make sure your listing is complete and up to date. Note that the primary contact is the only one who can do this, which brings us to...

Are You a Primary Contact?

If you're not sure, go to the My GBA tab and click on My Information. If you are a primary contact, you'll see a list of "Linked Organizations Information" at the bottom of the page, and you can edit the information for any of these locations. If you don't see any locations, then you are not a primary contact; look at the "Organization Information" section to find the primary contact for your location.

The About Us Tab

Learn about our history, our strategic plan, by-laws, an invitation from GBA's current president, and more.

Sign Up for a Business Council or Committee Online
